

ORGANIZATION OF RACING INVESTIGATORS CONFERENCE

Albuquerque Downs racetrack: Albuquerque, New Mexico: February 23-26, 2020

Preliminary agenda

Topics to be presented include:

- Keynote presentation case study – Kwan Wolsey, Queensland Racing Integrity Commission.
- Developing Open Source Intelligence – Tyler Durand, Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario.
- “Trackman” Safety issues for the equine athlete, related to track conditions. – Glen Kozak, New York Racing Association.
- What to do if you have an “Active Shooter” at your race track. – Tim McLaughlin, Parx Racing.
- USTA discussion on Standardbred racing– TC Lane, United States Trotting Association.
- Discussion on Conflict of Interest between Horsemen and Officials – Don Ahrens, Sam Houston Race Park & Juan Estrada, Arizona Department of Gaming.
- Shenanigans in the racing office and what an Investigator should look for - Ismael (Izzy) Trejo, New Mexico Racing Commission.
- Why can't the testing Lab detect it? – Petra Hartmann, Industrial Laboratories.
- Investigator's role in catastrophic Injuries- Jim Blodgett, Texas Racing Commission.

- What an Investigator needs to know to investigate: Alan Chastain, DVM
 - Milk shaking
 - Shockwave therapy

- Update on digital tattoos – Teena Appleby, Thoroughbred Racing Protective Bureau.

- Identifying human signs of drug impairment. – Jason Klouser, Pennsylvania State Horse Racing Commission.

- Case Study- Jockey Performance – Leasa Johnson, New Mexico Racing Commission.

- Discussion on what makes the case for prosecution/appeal- Mark Swanson, New Mexico Assistant Attorney General.

- Demonstration of Equine Drug Dog – Luis Alvarez, Ruidoso Downs racetrack.